- (3) The keeping of any animal which, by causing frequent or long continued noise, shall frighten or disturb the quiet comfort and repose of any reasonable person of ordinary sensibilities in the vicinity, however, the provisions of this ordinance are preempted by State laws relating to farming and may not interfere with lawful farm operations.

State Law reference— Authority to regulate, restrict or prohibit noise, G.S. § 153A-133.

<sup>1</sup> 15-1, Loud and disturbing noise: An "annoyance" standard drew the fire of the U.S. Supreme Court in Coates v. City of Cincinnati, 402 U.S. 611 (1971); it is one thing for a sound to be some loud as to "disturb a reasonable person," but any given level of sound might "annoy" someone without rising to the level of disturbance. Out of an abundance of caution, consider repealing the term "annoy" from this section.

Sec. 15-1.1. - Penalty for violation.

(a) Violation of Section 15-1, entitled, "Loud and disturbing noise", subjects the offender to a civil penalty to be recovered by Forsyth County in a civil action in the nature of a debt if the offender does not pay the penalty within a prescribed time period after being cited for violation of this ordinance.

- (3) Upon the possession, transportation, sale, purchase, and consumption of alcoholic beverages;
- (4) Upon the possession, transportation, sale, purchase, storage, and use of gasoline, and dangerous weapons and substances, except that this subdivision does not authorize prohibitions or restrictions on lawfully possessed firearms or ammunition. As used in this subdivision, the term "dangerous weapons and substances" has the same meaning as it does under G.S. 14-288.1. As used in this subdivision, the term "firearm" has the same meaning as it does under G.S. 14-409.39(2); and
- (5) Upon other activities or conditions the control of which may be reasonably necessary to maintain order and protect lives or property during the state of emergency.

A state of emergency shall exist whenever, during times of public crisis, disaster, rioting, catastrophe, or similar public emergency, public safety authorities are unable to maintain public order or afford adequate protection for lives or property, or wherever the occurrence of any such conditions is imminent.

- (d) Any person who violates any provision of a proclamation issued under this section shall be guilty of a Class 2 misdemeanor in accordance with G.S. 14-288.20A.

(Ord. No. 5-78, § 1, 7-17-78; Ord. No. 2-92, § 6, 4-13-92; Ord. No. 3-95, §§ 1, 2, 7-10-95)
